What are Phrasal Verbs and Expressions?

Phrasal verbs are a unique feature of the English language that combine a verb with a preposition or adverb to create a new meaning that differs from the original verb alone. Expressions, on the other hand, encompass a wider range of grammatical structures that convey specific meanings or idioms. Both phrasal verbs and expressions are indispensable for achieving fluency and accuracy in English.

Importance of Phrasal Verbs and Expressions for C1 Proficiency

As you progress towards C1 proficiency, a thorough understanding of phrasal verbs and expressions becomes increasingly critical. These constructs appear frequently in academic writing, professional communication, and everyday conversations among native speakers.

By incorporating phrasal verbs and expressions into your vocabulary, you will not only enhance your language skills but also demonstrate a sophisticated level of proficiency, impressing both native speakers and fellow learners alike.
